

Larry Adams Scholarship in Public Policy Application

The Larry Adams Scholarship in Public Policy is open to upper division Political Science majors only, who have a strong GPA and are willing to work a minimum of 10-12 hours per week in an otherwise unpaid internship in a local government agency during Winter Quarter, 2018. The stipend is $1,000, with only one award given in selected quarters.

If you are currently working in or have ever considered working in a local government agency or in the local office of a state or federal elected official, this is an opportunity you should seriously consider. For assistance in locating current internships, visit the Internships page of the Political Science Department's website at <http://www.polsci.ucsb.edu/undergrad/internships>. (Please see Undergraduate Advising about how to earn course credit).

➔ To apply, please complete the following information AND attach a description (no more than 1-2 pages in length) explaining the kinds of work you are likely to be doing as part of your internship, and how you see the internship contributing to your education. (Please print or type.)
